

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

LAST NIGHT BIGGEST OF THE ELKS' FAIR

More Than a Thousand Persons Attended the Indoor Carnival in Ketchikan Building.

NEWPORT NEWS BROTHERS PRESENT

Shipbuilding "Horned Men" Came Down With a Brass Band and Took the Fair By Storm. The Rush and Push Was Kept Up Throughout the Evening. Firemen There Tonight.

Between 1,000 and 1,500 persons visited the Elks' indoor fair and carnival in the Ketchikan Building last night and it proved the biggest night of the week. The fact that it was Elks' night and that about 150 members of the Newport News Lodge came down to attend the fair drew the crowd and there was a rush and a push throughout the evening.
The Newport News lodge, headed by a brass band, reached the fairgrounds shortly after 8 o'clock. Their arrival was the occasion for a whirl of excitement. The visiting Elks came down on three special cars. Arriving at the corner of Armistead avenue and West Queen street the visitors were met by a delegation of the local lodge and then marched down Queen street to the fair. The Newport News "horned men" were loaded with the "long green" and the various booths and other attractions reaped a harvest from the visitors. In fact the night was by far the biggest thing in the fair line that Hampton has ever seen.

Firemen Come Tonight.
Tonight will be another one of gaiety at the fair. The firemen from Ham-ton and Phoebus will be in attendance and as they are a jolly lot of men it is expected that the night will almost equal last night.

Tomorrow night the Newport News Aerie and the Hampton Aerie of Eagles will be the special guests at the fair. This should also be a great night. The Eagles, like the Elks, never do things by halves and the fair committee is looking forward to their visit with pleasure.

Matters Personal

The marriage of Mr. Frederick Moorman Cunningham and Miss Mary Wilson was solemnized in the First Methodist church at 5 o'clock last evening. The church was very tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and cuc flowers while the chancel decorations were of white and green. Rev.
John W. Stiff, the pastor, officiated.
Mr. Cunningham had as his best man Mr. Wilson Gur and the maid of honor, who wore a becoming dress of white silk and carried roses, was Miss Bonnie Shafer of Norfolk. Messrs.
Edward S. Bush, Herbert Wilson, George Wilson and J. Monroe Harris were the ushers. The bride wore a costume of white and the long veil.
Following the marriage Mr. and Mrs.
Cunningham returned to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.
N. Wilson, near Buckroe Beach, where a wedding supper was served. The couple later took a steamer at Old Point for a northern bridal tour.
Mr. Cunningham is the chief clerk in the Sherwood Inn and resides in South King street. Miss Wilson has a host of friends and acquaintances, among whom she is exceedingly popular. A number of very pretty presents were received by Mr. and Mrs.
Cunningham.

Mr. C. C. Yeatower of Lightfoot, Va., is visiting his brother in law, Mr.
E. C. Kaiser in Mellen street, Phoebus.

Miss Snyder, a nurse in the National Soldiers' home, has recovered from her recent attack of appendicitis and is able to leave her room.

Mr. R. S. Copeland, a clerk in the Bank of Phoebus, has left for a visit in Baltimore.

Mrs. Hamilton Martin, of Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jesse S. Jones, in Carey street.

Miss Laura Mitchell will leave tomorrow for a stay of a month with relatives in Henderson, N. C.

PRESIDENT GOMPERS WILL COME WEDNESDAY

President of the American Federation of Labor to Be the Guest of Carpenters' and Joiners' Union.

President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, and ten prominent officers of the International Carpenters' and Joiners' union, will visit Hampton next Wednesday evening as the guests of the local Carpenters' and Joiners' union.
The committee in charge of the arrangements for the visit of the prominent labor men yesterday received word that next Wednesday night was convenient for President Gompers to come and the committeemen immediately informed the labor leaders that the date would suit the local union.
It has been decided to hold a public reception in honor of the visiting men in Pythian castle hall and it is the intention of the carpenters and joiners to get up an excellent program for their enjoyment.

GEORGE C. CHRYSON, NOT ARTHUR CHRYSON A WITNESS

Mixup in the First Names of the Fruit Dealers Caused Arthur Chryson Considerable Annoyance.

By a mistake in the first names of the two gentlemen, The Daily Press yesterday was in error in stating that Arthur Chryson, the Newport News fruit dealer, was a witness in the White-Hess criminal assault trial. It should have been stated that George Chryson of Newport News, was the man, as Arthur Chryson had also happily nothing to do with the case and was in no wise connected with it.
George C. Chryson was a witness and it was he who informed Major Hess of the alleged attempt at criminal assault.

TO SAVE BANKS' LIFE.

Mr. Collier to Present Such a Petition to Supreme Court Today.
Mr. Fay S. Collier, the criminal attorney will go to Richmond today to present a petition to the Supreme Court of Appeals asking for a writ of error in the case of the commonwealth against William Banks, the negro, under sentence to die on the gallows on December 13th.
The petition is lengthy and it will ask that the verdict of the jury be set aside as contrary to the law and the evidence.

Got a Revolver.
An unknown thief entered the number schooner Hattie, Captain Wilcox, in Hampton creek during Tuesday night and stole a revolver.

Phoebus Council Tonight.
The Phoebus town council will meet in regular monthly session this evening. Aside from the usual monthly routine business there is nothing of an important nature to be taken up by the council.

TRYING TO GET JURY TO TRY MRS. BRADLEY

Difficulty Experienced Because So Many Veniemen Object to Hanging a Woman.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—
The first day of the trial of Mrs.
Annie M. Bradley, on the charge of murdering former United States Senator Brown, of Utah, was consumed entirely in an effort to obtain a jury.
When at 4 o'clock the court adjourned for the day, that preliminary work was still incomplete, notwithstanding 61 men had been examined as to their competency to sit in the case.
It was made evident that the attorneys for Mrs. Bradley will depend upon the plea of insanity as their only professed defense. If there was any confidence in the plea of justification it was suppressed.

Many jurors were excused on account of their opposition to capital punishment for women.
Mrs. Bradley was accompanied to the court room by her mother, Mrs.
Madison, who remained during the forenoon session.

During the early hours of the day Mrs. Bradley appeared nervous and affected by all the references to the tragedy, but later gained her composure. The court room was crowded, many of the spectators being women.

Queen of Italy Again a Mother.
(By Associated Press.)

ROME, Nov. 13.—Queen Helene this morning gave birth to a daughter.
Both mother and child are doing well.
King Emmanuel and Queen Helene, who were married in October, 1896, now have four children: Princess Yo-hanna, born June 1, 1901; Princess Hafaldia, born November 19, 1902; Prince Humbert, the heir apparent, born September 15, 1904, and the child which came into the world today.

OFFERED OFFICER BRIBE.

Robert Wright, Colored, Said He Would Give 75 cents for Release

Officer R. D. Hope arrested Robert Wright, colored, last night on the charge of being a suspicious character. When arrested Wright told Officer Hope that he only had 75 cents in money with him and promised to pay that sum to the officer. If he would allow him to go, Officer Hope informed Wright that he would need the money when he came before Mayor Thornton F. Jones.

Taking Wright to the jail Officer Hope searched him and found that he had $23.78 in good American money in his pocket. Wright was unable to explain where he got the money.

Union of Colleges Voted Down.
BRISTOL, Va., Nov. 13.—The repeated efforts to unite Tusculum and Washington and King colleges, historic educational institutions of the Presbyterian church in East Tennessee, have failed. The Washington college board having refused to concur in the plan. The Tusculum board had previously voted adversely upon the plan.

Syme-Eaton Won.
The Syme-Eaton Academy's football team defeated the second team of Old Point Comfort College yesterday, 6 to 0.

Game Saturday.
Old Point Comfort College and the Brambleton football eleven will meet on Willow Beach gridiron Saturday afternoon.
